Einladung zum 29. Kongress der Föderation Internationaler Donausymposia (FID)/

9. Zentraleuropäischen Diabeteskongress in Jurmala/Rigastrand – Lettland

26. Juni 2014 bis 28. Juni 2014 – www.fid2014.com

Why should you come to the 29th Congress of FID/9th Congress of CEDA in Jurmala?

The academic programme of the congress offers building bridges between a holistic view, provided by extensive experience, and a youthful search for new ideas. You will definitely learn a thing or two during the lectures, meet the expert sessions, pro and con discussions and poster sessions!

Timing for the congress is chosen to be right after the solstice, at time, when the nature is full of energy, therefore Jurmala, the seaside, is specifically selected as a location. At the opening night, we will try to deliver you the ancient magic which is offered by historical traditions and Baltic Sea.

Formal and informal contact is a tradition and strength of these kind of congresses. Communication expands the view – this is evidenced by a history of a rich reciprocity in the context of Baltic and worldwide science.

Born in Riga and studied at the University of Tartu (Estonia), chemist Friedrich Wilhelm Ostwald attracted an impressive number of the brightest minds of his time to the Baltics, and was awarded a well-deserved Nobel Prize in chemistry for his work on catalysis, chemical equilibria and reaction velocities. This is just one of a great many examples illustrating the cooperation formed by innovative ideas followed by well-designed experiments and precise observation of unexpected results and their interpretation.

On behalf of the Central-European Diabetes Association, we cordially invite you to participate in the 29th Congress of the Federation of the International Danube Symposia on Diabetes mellitus that will take place in Jurmala, Latvia, from 26 until 28 June 2014.

Let us gain knowledge, establish contacts for scientific projects and most importantly, have a good time!

Iron rimmed wheels
Shoed horses.
